Project:

The Wolastoqey Tribal Council (WTCI) is seeking proposals for the development of a Strategic Plan. We are looking for an experienced consultant to co-develop a strategic plan for the organization based on feedback from community, staff, and partners.

The successful proposal will need to demonstrate a strong track record of success in developing strategic plans as well as experience working with First Nation Organizations.

Project Goals:

- Set clear priorities for the organization in alignment with community needs and funding realities.
- Guide and influence long-term planning.
- Strengthen accountability to communities and members.
- Optimize resources and opportunities.

Required Items for inclusion into the proposal:

- Work outline and methodology
- Qualifications and demonstrated experience
- Cost and timing

Evaluation Criteria:

Proposals will be evaluated based on:

- Understanding of the project goals.

- Experience with similar work.
- Feasibility of timeline and budget.
- Connection to Wolastoqey community and values.

SUBMISSION:

Submissions are due on or before October 4th, 2026, at midnight. No submissions will be accepted after that date. The proposal selection will take place within 2 weeks of the submission date and applicants will be notified of the decision.

Please send proposals to: HUMAN.RESOURCE@WOLASTOQEY.CA with the Subject Line: "Strategic Plan".
